Bhíodh fonn riamh anall ar idir mhanaigh agus ealaíontóirí luath-Chríostaíochta aghaidh a thabhairt ar na hoileáin ab iargúlta in Éirinn.

Dlínse na dteaghlaigh

Tá seans maith ann gurb é Niall na Naoi nGiall, Ard-Rí na hÉireann de réir an tseanscéil, an t-ardtiarna ar bhí ar Inis Fraoigh sa 5ú haois. Deir breis is 3 milliún fear atá scaipthe ar fud an domhain gur de shliocht Niall na Naoi nGiall iad.

Whether early Christian monks or artists, people have always escaped to Ireland's remote islands.

Clan territory

Niall of the Nine Hostages, the semi-legendary High King of Ireland, may have been overlord of Inis Fraoigh (Inishfree) in the 5th century. Three million men worldwide can claim to be his direct descendants.

1 Bí ag faire amach do speiceas éagsúla éan i rith na bliana.
Watch out for birdlife all year round.

2 Éist le fuaim na gcloch duirlinge ag bualadh i gcoinean a chéile ar Thrá na gCloch.
Listen to the sound of the pebbles on Stone Beach.

3 Coinníogh do shúile oscailte – b'fhéidir go bhfeicfidh tú delf.

Keep a look out for dolphins that frequent these waters.

Scréachóirí Atlantis

Thug baill de chomún ó Londain aghaidh ar an áit seo sna 1970idí. Ba é na Scréachóirí an leasainm a tugadh orthu mar gur mheas siad gurb ionann an scréachach agus teiripe.

Do na héin

Bíonn aistear fada ag go leor éan atá ar Inis Fraoigh sula mbaineann siad a gceann scríbe amach: is ón Antartach a thagann an gheabhróg Artach. Tá éin eile, an saidhbhéar mar shampla anseo leis na céadta bliain.

The Atlantis Screamers

Members of a London-based commune retreated here in the 1970s. They were nicknamed the Screamers because this was their form of therapy.

Strictly for the birds

Some of the many birds on Inish Fraoigh (Inishfree) are far flung travellers: the Arctic tern flies in from Antarctica. Others like the kittiwake have lived here for centuries.
